

Our Commitment

Modern slavery encompasses slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour, and human trafficking, whereby individuals are deprived of their freedom and exploited for commercial or personal gain, as defined in the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Flexiteek International Ltd is committed to combatting slavery and human trafficking and to acting with integrity in all of our business dealings, relationships and supply chains.

We recognise our responsibility to help prevent modern slavery and human trafficking and are committed to conducting business in an ethical and transparent manner. We expect the same high standards from all suppliers, contractors and other organisations with whom we do business.

Our Approach

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It can take many forms, including slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour, and human trafficking.

Flexiteek International Ltd is committed to:

- conducting business ethically and responsibly;
- complying with all applicable laws relating to modern slavery and human trafficking;
- promoting fair and lawful working practices throughout our operations;
- taking reasonable steps to identify and address the risk of modern slavery within our business and supply chains;
- working with suppliers and business partners who share our commitment to ethical business practices and respect for human rights.

Raising Concerns

We encourage employees, suppliers, customers and other stakeholders to raise any concerns regarding actual or suspected modern slavery, human trafficking or related unethical practices connected to our business or supply chains.

Any concerns raised will be taken seriously and reviewed appropriately.

Review

This policy is reviewed periodically to ensure it remains effective and continues to reflect legal, regulatory and business developments.
